There are some representatives who due to their position can represent your account without a Representation Mandate being in place.

Other representatives can represent your account; however, there must be an authenticated, signed mandate held.

Section 5 Representation Mandate

Full details of who does or does not require a Representation Mandate are listed below:

Representation	Mandate	Full details
Solicitor	No	Any application for information from a solicitor may be accepted at face value as they are regulated by Law Society of Scotland Rules of Professional Practice, and do not need to have a representation mandate. If they make a telephone request for personal data they will be asked to re-submit in writing on original letterhead.
Elected members - MP/MSP/MEP/ Councillor	No	Any application for information may be accepted at face value as they are regulated by either the Scottish Executive or the UK Parliament, therefore a mandate is not compulsory. No telephone requests for personal data can be accepted though and they will be advised to submit the request in writing on original letterhead with a personal signature. NOTE – If the request from a Councillor is for someone outwith their ward, a mandate will be required.
Partner / Family member	Yes / No	If the application for information is from a partner / family member who is named on the account e.g. as a joint tenant, no mandate is required. If they are not named on the account and an application for information is received, this must be accompanied by an authenticated, signed mandate from the property owner.
Representative	Yes	All applications for information must be accompanied by an authenticated, signed mandate. If there is no mandate then the application will be refused.

Requests for personal data such as access to copies of customer files, any other personal data or CCTV imagery, will be processed through a Subject Access Request.

Section 6

Representation Mandate
